ussr cannot be indifferent to growing threat arising from deployment of over 500 more sophisticated american missiles. agmt must be reached at geneva now, before deadline for proposed deployment expires in december. what nations need now is reason and goodwill to reach agmt to curb arms race, not provocation or arms race policies. (enguk 1900)

46 viktor tanin on new round of soviet-american talks in geneva, says this will be decisive round on which fate of agmt depends which obliges both sides to prove very responsible and constructive approach to negotiations and to create necessary conditions for favoring their success. washington does it best to poison political climate in world in order to foment unprecedented militarist hysteria, re maneuvers in various parts of world; if washington's position at geneva remains unilateral and nonconstructive and start installation of new american missiles in europe, then ussr will naturally have to adopt countermeasures in order to maintain parity of forces on regional scale, that is to say european, and also on global scale.
